

Director of Education – Sarah Taylor

Sarah has lived in Hermanus since 2012 and she is passionate about our beautiful town and its unique natural environment of mountain fynbos, milkwood forests and rich oceans.

Sarah is a freelance writer and editor with more than 25 years' experience in South Africa, the United Kingdom and Namibia across a variety of media and subjects. She currently works from her home in Westcliff and is an active member of the Westcliff Residents' Association.

Sarah is keen to be part of a team dedicated to finding ways to protect and, where necessary, improve Hermanus – making it safer and cleaner for everyone. Her intention is to use her skills and experience in the media to further the educational objectives of the Hermanus Public Protection (HPP) NPC.

One of Sarah's biggest concerns is the huge inequality which exists in our society and hopes to play her part in supporting the Overstrand Municipality, in bringing a safe, clean, healthy and stable environment to the people of our town.

Sarah looks forward to helping make Hermanus an even lovelier place for locals from Vermont to Voelklip as well as for visitors, the lifeblood of our town.
